INFORMATION BOOKLET
PRESS

Media information

We look forward to hosting media attending the FIVB Beach Volleyball World Championships in the Netherlands. The event will be held from June 26 to July 5 in The Hague, Amsterdam, Apeldoorn and Rotterdam.

This information will assist you in planning your trip to the Netherlands and to apply for media accreditation to cover the event. Every effort will be made to ensure journalists have all the appropriate facilities necessary to work at the event.

1. Accreditation

All members of the media wishing to attend the FIVB Beach Volleyball World Championships need to sign up to the FIVB Media Club via the online accreditation form available at:

<http://fivb.org/EN/Media/accreditation.asp> . Already registered FIVB media Club members can log in with their username and password to their account to apply for credentials under “My Accreditations” tab.

All domestic accreditation requests can be managed here :

<http://www.fivb.org/EN/Media/login.asp>

Please contact the FIVB Press Department (press@fivb.org) for your personal login information.

Accreditation passes and a media kit are issued at the Information Desk at the Media Centres in The Hague, Amsterdam, Apeldoorn and Rotterdam. The accreditation pass will be asked at each controlled entrance and will allowed you to have access to the specific venue.

2. Hotels

There are no official media hotels. It is the responsibility of the individual media persons to book their own accommodation.

Transport/Accessibility host cities

The Hague

The Hague can be reached in a variety of ways: by air, by train and by road. There are two major international airports at under 45 minutes travel time from The Hague: Rotterdam The Hague Airport (45 minutes by train, 25 minutes by car) and Amsterdam Schiphol Airport (29 minutes by train, 35 minutes by car).

By public transport

The Hague boasts excellent public transport. Over 30 bus and tram lines will quickly and safely take you to your destination in The Hague and the beach areas Scheveningen and Kijkduin. Randstad Rail offers excellent light rail connections to Zoetermeer and Rotterdam.

Amsterdam

Amsterdam is a world-class international transport hub and there are countless ways of getting into the city. Many travelers fly into the award-winning Amsterdam Airport Schiphol, while hopping on a train is also a great option – convenient and cost effective, the rail network in the Netherlands is second to none. And of course the road network provides easy access to Amsterdam for those keen to travel by car or coach.

By public transport

Amsterdam boasts an impressive public transport network including metros, buses, trams, ferries and trains to help you get around the capital. The I Amsterdam City Card gives you unlimited use of the GVB public transport system for 24, 48 or 72 hours. There is also a number of coach parking facilities located in Amsterdam. The Amsterdam for coaches brochure contains useful maps and information about visiting Amsterdam by coach. For an interactive map and information on roadworks, height restrictions, obligatory coach routes and details of accessing the city centre, please visit the City of Amsterdam website.

Apeldoorn

Apeldoorn is conveniently situated in the centre of The Netherlands and can be reached easily by car or public transport. Apeldoorn is located next to two important highways of the Netherlands, the A1 and A50. Therefore it is easily reachable by car from, for example, The Hague, Rotterdam, Amsterdam, and Schiphol Airport. From Amsterdam/Schiphol it will take approximately one hour and 15 minutes and from The Hague and Rotterdam one and a half hour to get to Apeldoorn.

By public transport

You can also reach Apeldoorn by train. There are direct train connections to large cities such as Amsterdam, Rotterdam, The Hague and Schiphol Airport. Once arrived in Apeldoorn, you can travel to almost every place within the city by bus. However, for those who want to go straight to Market Square, this is easily within walking distance of the central station.

Transport/Accessibility host cities

Rotterdam

Rotterdam is readily accessible from Europe and the rest of the world by plane, by train and by car. Rotterdam is reachable by use of the highway A4 from The Hague and Amsterdam. Airport Schiphol Amsterdam is a 45 minutes' drive away from Rotterdam.

By public transport

Public transport in Rotterdam is well organized: the trams, buses and metro are scheduled to link perfectly. Boats are also a convenient means of transport in and around this city on the water. You can also take the bike or a taxi to get around in Rotterdam.
